

Home Office Sports & Social Association

Ethos is the nationwide Sports and Social Association for the Home Office offering a range of sporting and leisure activities. Ethos is here to support your wellbeing in the workplace. So whether you want to get fit, relax or just make friends and have fun, join us and live life to the full. Ethos has something for everyone.

Benefits to members include:

- Grants for affiliated clubs towards running costs and equipment
- Subsidies for social events, trips and holidays
- Financial support and sponsorship for individuals and teams participating in national and international competitions
- Discounted theatre tickets
- 50% off RRP on all DVDs and Blu-rays published by the British Film Industry (BFI)

We will continue to pursue other benefits for our members.

Ethos has something for everyone.
