

Office Champions

We are looking for volunteers to promote CSSC in office buildings

"It's a great way of getting to know the people in your building and it also makes me aware early of what is going on within CSSC."

What is an office champion?

Our office champions help to spread the word of CSSC. We are looking for one volunteer per office who is responsible for promoting all the great benefits of CSSC to their colleagues.

What is involved?

You can do as much or as little as you are able to, so you could...

- Forward on CSSC information to your colleagues
- Print and display posters in your office
- Post CSSC details on your intranet
- Talk to colleagues about the benefits of CSSC
- Open doors for the CSSC sales team

What support will I have?

CSSC will send you emails with everything you need to help you understand and promote CSSC. Your local volunteer support advisor will also be on hand to offer you any support or advice you need.

Apply to be an office champion

simply fill in and return this form to
